

The Chronicles of the Robinsons!

Over Christmas Narnia was in the cinema and now it has just come out on DVD. Did you know it was directed by the same guy who directed the Shrek movies? There are so many parallels between the sacrifice that Aslan made for Edmond and the sacrifice that Jesus made for us, that hundreds if not thousands of churches across the world have used it as the basis for outreach. Who knows if that director realised what he was releasing to the world! We very much enjoyed watching the film and chatting to friends about it afterwards, hence the Narnia theme to this newsletter!

We must apologise to everyone in the more northern regions of the country who has been expecting a visit from us, our trip has failed to materialise. Things keep popping up and getting in our way but we are determined to make our road trip, hopefully in June.

Wycliffe life

Tim continues to serve as the WYnet co-ordinator which is a very full time position. This letter was in fact written both before and after WYnet's annual prayer conference. 30 people gathered up at the Jonas Centre in North Yorkshire. We explored several aspects of prayer including creative prayer, spiritual gifts and the crux of the weekend, praying for mission. We had an awesome time with lots of new people including a great collection from the North East.

Ali continues to work at the Wycliffe Centre one day a week running the gang mail system. Her job involves keeping mailing lists up to date, tracking people down to pass post on and helping to mail some of the organisation's publications.

Home Life

Our lodger, Ellie, moved out a couple of months ago but we still see her quite often. She still takes care of Daniel on a Wednesday so that I can work, for which we are very grateful!

Over Easter we had a full weekend. On Friday we were able to meet up with a fair few of Tim's side of the family down in Horley. Then on Saturday our new lodger, Alex, moved in. Alex has been a WYnetter for a good few years and remains involved despite being out of our normal age bracket! He presently works as computer systems engineer at a company near Maidenhead. Tim led worship at church on Sunday. Then on Monday we had the youth pastor and his wife from Long Crendon Baptist Church over for a barbeque. So a busy weekend!

Verse of the moment

Romans 12 : 1-2

" Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is, his good, pleasing and perfect will. ."

The horse and his BOY. Our boy, Danny!

Dan is now 21 months old and truly becoming a little boy. He enjoys running around a lot and interacting with people, he is still a very sociable young man. He isn't saying very much but is a fine communicator and uses a few words like 'bang' with great gusto!

Dan and I were able to go to my Nana's 90th birthday party, sadly it was on at the same time as WYnet's prayer conference so Tim couldn't make it. Dan and I had a great time seeing lots of relatives I hadn't seen for ages, and many that Dan had never met! Dan is looking forward to seeing his Grandma and Grandpa in about a month's time. They are coming back from Ghana for a month and a half and we are hoping that they will spend a fair bit of it with us!

The Last Battle

The reason for calling this “the last battle” is that we have felt sometimes that it has been a battle to raise the funding that we need. However it is a joy to announce that we have reached over 80% of our funding target. Thank you so much to all of you who have been supporting and continue to support us financially and in prayer. We are looking for the last 5/6 people to join our support team. If that could be you please let us know as soon as you can! We hope this will be the last push of this battle for a while.

Voyage of the ... up coming news and events

- Tim is going to be involved in creating a Wycliffe UK Child protection policy.
- WYnet is hosting jointly with Underground, the youth wing of Open Doors, an event called “Hungry for the Word” during May half term.
- Wycliffe UK Annual Conference in early May.
- WYnet Togo Trip in July.
- WYnet summer Camp in early August
